

portion which is not processed into a mirror surface are processed to block light.

*Q1
concl'd*

5. (Amended) The omnidirectional visual camera according to Claim 1, wherein one end surface of the cylindrical portion to which the rotating surface portion is connected has a smaller diameter than the other end thereof.
